

BRYG GROUP

A Rahul Gaur Enterprise

A vision takes shape.

A beginning is made.

While the world waits for something revolutionary to happen.

A few burn midnight oil to give shape to that dream.

That's BRYS GROUP.

Commenced with the combined wisdom of a seasoned real estate professional and a marketing & advertising professional, BRYS GROUP was thus borne out of a desire to excel as a corporate conglomerate. The combined experience, expertise & exposure of the promoters of BRYS took the company in a very short span of time to four different verticals—from real estate to advertising and hospitality to healthcare.

More importantly, BRYS GROUP today stands tall in corporate benchmark which is driven by professionals, as promoters themselves are thorough professionals. Out-of-box thinking and fresh ideas give BRYS GROUP's all the ventures a cutting edge competitiveness in the respective industries and this unconventional than traditional approach is the USP of the company.

hospitality

BRYS HOTELS is amongst the most prominent companies of BRYS GROUP. With plans to construct landmark structures all over the nation and at select locations abroad, it had opened its flagship property in Jaisalmer, BRYS FORT to rave reviews.

Situated in the heart of Jaisalmer offering a rare view of the eponymous Golden Fort, BRYS FORT has been painstakingly recreated to transport its patrons back into the halcyon times of Rajputana chivalry. It is one of the largest ultra-modern luxurious hotels built on traditional architectural precepts and combines the best of the both worlds, medieval as well as modern that elevates your visit to Rajasthan to the luxurious splendour.

Formed with a radical thought to completely transform the Medical Equipment Sector, BRYS Medicare seeks to bring about quality, care and compassion in the most critical area of our life—HEALTH. With access to quality health care still a distant dream for majority of our countrymen, BRYS Medicare seeks to speed up the process of reaching health care to the masses through the import of state-of-the-art medical equipment at affordable cost.

At the same time, BRYS Medicare also seeks to emerge as an important cog in country's medical tourism. It will also bring about some form of organization into this sector along with total transparency, which is backed up by strict adherence to quality norms and values. It is planning to achieve the high goals it has set before itself through Public Private Partnership model.
